

As we get ready to close the books on another year (and decade), we want to thank all of you for another amazing journey. 2019 marked our 25th year in business and over the past several months we've had a blast reliving some great projects, reflecting on all of the meaningful relationships we've formed and strategizing for the next 25-year journey. We are continually reminded of how lucky we are to work with passionate partners and we're overcome with an incredible sense of gratitude for the relationships we have been able to develop.

It is a privilege to get to do the work that we do and to work with so many great companies and organizations in the process. Our clients and partners continue to inspire us – from restaurants, hotels, corporate and retail spaces to sports and entertainment venues – we have been able to create the places where you want to be on behalf of passionate individuals and organizations in cities all over the country. For this, we thank you.

During this holiday season, we look forward to a time of celebration, relaxation and recharging with our friends and especially our families. Richardson Design's last day of 2019 will be Friday, December 20. We will return to the studio on January 2 and look forward to what 2020 brings our way.

Peace to you and yours,

The Richardson Design Team
