Richardson Design Celebrates Its 25th Anniversary and New Blog Launch

2019 marks Richardson Design's 25th year in business. From those first projects to the ones we're handling today, it's been quite a journey. We're proud of who we were and who we are today, and encourage you to view our most recent work on our website. To help celebrate, we've added a new blog to our website, and will be talking more in depth with our team of designers about notable industry indicators, project highlights, and maybe even pull up some fun photos from those early years. We hope you'll follow us on Facebook and Twitter for updates to our new blog page.

Molly Brannigan's Returns

We've just completed an interior refresh of this well-known Irish pub in Erie, Pennsylvania. Molly Brannigan's owners Billy and Beth Lewis (of Red Letter Hospitality) welcomed guests during the grand reopening to enjoy some of the fan favorite dishes with a brighter atmosphere, updated brand and interior, all while keeping the beautiful original fixtures of the bar. With all these updates, Molly Brannigan's is ready to be a community staple, in food, beer, and hearty Erie culture. Sláinte!

Children's Museum of Cleveland Revisited

Last fall, the Children's Museum of Cleveland opened three new exhibits, adding Meadow, Playlist and Theater to the list of spaces visitors can explore. See photos of the new exhibits and read about our work.

O'Canna-What?

We went to Toronto in April to attend the O'Cannabiz industry conference, the largest trade show in Canada for the cannabis industry. Read why we went and our key takeaways from that conference.

Giving Back to Our Communities - Lakewood Alive

Richardson Design proudly gave time this past June through Lakewood Alive's volunteer program. We spent the afternoon helping a Lakewood resident with an outdoor beautification project on her 1922 home. Watch our hands at work!

Italy, Here We Come!

Partner + Trend Director, Kristie Oldham, jetted off to Italy to mingle with Italian tile manufacturers and enjoy the local culture. Thank you to Virginia Tile for sponsoring Kristie's trip! It's still considered work if you're surrounded by giant barrels of balsamic vinegar, right?

Employee Appreciation

Congratulations to two of our designers, Kayla Mehalic and Heather Ruwe, who are celebrating five years at Richardson Design this year. They both contribute so much to the firm and we're excited to see what the next five years with them will bring!

Ready to talk about your next project? Get in touch. We'll have the coffee ready.
